ALL CONCERTS TAKE PLACE ON SATURDAY EVENINGS AT 7.30PM AT ST JOHN'S CHURCH, KESWICK

1st February 2025 - KORROS ENSEMBLE (Flute, Clarinet, Harp)

Programme:

- D. Scarlatti Sonata in D Major K.96 No.465
- C. Debussy 2 Arabesques
- E. Poston Trio for flute, clarinet & harp
- C. Saint-Saëns Tarantella Op.6
- E. Marshall On Butterfly Wings
- D. Brubeck Two Pieces
- A. Khachaturian Adagio from Spartacus
- G. Bizet Carmen Rhapsody

The Korros Ensemble performs with dynamism and flair, and the sound world they produce is lush and mesmerising. With a vision of introducing something new and original to the chamber music world, Korros - comprised of Eliza Marshall (flute), Nick Ellis (clarinet) and Camilla Pay (harp) - continue to cleverly rework their favourite repertoire, creating an exciting and fresh way of listening to beloved orchestral, chamber and solo works.

Camilla, Nick and Eliza are highly experienced and in demand artists, having individually performed with all major UK orchestras.

1st March 2025 - KOSMOS TRIO (Accordion, Violin, Viola)

Kosmos - Harriet MacKenzie (violin), Meg Hamilton (viola), Milos Milivojevic (accordion) - are re-defining the relationship between classical and world music. Scottish, Jewish and Greek music glide into hot-blooded tango and Asian melodies, referencing classical composers including Corelli, Piazzolla and Sarasate, performed with fearless improvisation and impeccable technique.

Prepare to be intoxicated by entrancing dance rhythms, soulful improvisation and gypsy passion delivered with inimitable panache and "telepathic rapport, dazzling virtuosity, serious scholarship, intellectual curiosity and impeccable musicianship" according to Richard Morrison, chief music critic, The Times.

Great communicators, Kosmos will introduce their programme on the night.

All three members of Kosmos are soloists in their own right and have recorded concertos with the Royal Philharmonic Orchestra, English Symphony Orchestra, Orchestra Nova among others to great critical acclaim.

5th April 2025 - EMMANUEL BACH & JENNY STERN (Violin & Piano)

Programme:

- Beethoven Sonata No.9 in A for Piano and Violin, Op.47 'Kreutzer'
- Kreisler Liebesleid & Gypsy Caprice
- Peter Fribbins Sonata for Solo Violin (2011-12)
- Grieg Sonata No.2 in G, Op.13
- Ysaÿe Caprice d'après L'Etude en Forme de Valse de C. Saint-Saëns

This concert is a chance to hear a true virtuoso violinist who won the Royal Overseas League String Competition 2018. Emmanuel is rightly gaining increasing recognition as an exceptional soloist, and as a chamber musician. Recent performances include recitals at Wigmore Hall and St Martin-in-the-Fields, and a live-streamed masterclass on the Brahms Concerto with Maxim Vengerov.

He is accompanied by South Africa born pianist Jenny Stern, a superb accompanist and chamber musician. She has recorded extensively for radio and television, gives masterclasses at venues including Dartington Summer School of Music, and teaches at Eton College and the Royal College of Music.

Their interesting and varied programme includes masterworks by Beethoven and Grieg, delightful miniatures by Kreisler, as well as pieces by Ysaÿe and Fribbins - two composers whose work deserves to be heard much more widely.

5th October 2024 - THE DA VINCI TRIO

Programme:

Beethoven Trio Op.1 No.1 in E Flat
Arvo Pärt Mozart Adagio
Mendelssohn Trio in D Minor Op.49
Shostakovich Trio No.1

The Da Vinci Trio (piano, violin & cello) is well known for relaxed, witty and informative introductions as well as for expressive playing, which will be shown to great effect in this varied programme.

Anthony Moffat, violin, has led many internationally acclaimed orchestras including the Royal Liverpool Philharmonic, BBC Scottish, and Hallé Orchestras.

Cellist Rudi de Groote is Principal Cello with the BBC SSO, and has played as guest principal cello in the City of Birmingham Symphony Orchestra, the Orchestra of Opera North and the John Wilson Orchestra.

Estonian pianist Liivi Arder studied at the Estonian Academy of Music and Theatre before completing an Advanced Accompaniment Course at the Royal Conservatoire of Scotland in 2010. She was a recipient of the Sam Hutchings Fellowship award.

Fernström Quintet
Zemlinsky Humoreske
Szervánszky Quintet No.1
Navarro Juego de Ladrones (Game of Thieves)
Tomasi Variations sur un Thème Corse
Arnold Three Shanties
Traditional arr. Loch Lomond
M Howells

Sirocco Winds: flute, oboe, clarinet, horn & bassoon, are comprised of accomplished soloists and members of leading UK orchestras. In this attractive programme that showcases all their instruments they take us on a journey around Europe from Sweden to France to Hungary including two rarely performed quintets with a short, light-hearted interlude from Austria, before visiting Spain, back through France and England, finishing back in their home, Scotland!

7th December 2024 - PIVA THE RENAISSANCE COLLECTIVE

PIVA – The Renaissance Collective

PIVA are one of the UK's leading early music ensembles. Playing an array of over 40 period instruments, their fresh, innovative and energetic approach has captured the imagination of audiences wherever they perform. We are delighted to welcome them back to Keswick.

Programme

This December PIVA will help ease you into the Christmas spirit, celebrating the Yuletide season by performing seasonal music and songs from Tudor and Elizabethan times. Winter in the 16th century, could be harsh, but the Twelve Days of Christmas were filled with feasting, music, dancing, singing, and revelry. PIVA will be capturing a flavour of that era; playing and singing music of the period and telling tales from the time.
